TASTINGS.COM (SILVER MEDAL)

IRISH WHISKEY AWARDS 2015 - (GOLD MEDAL)

THE NOSE. Slight but undoubtedly rich with dark fruit – cherry, raisin, fig (with Christmas pudding notes on the nose for those lucky enough to know what that is) along with floral lemongrass and a touch of nutmeg.

THE TASTE. Sweet and creamy on the palate to the front, with butterscotch, honey and peppercorn bring along the sweet Bourbon Cask notes, after which dried fruit returning maraschino cherries and a pinch of brown sugar.

THE FINISH. Lingering notes of ginger spices with a faint glimmer of almond to end a complex Irish whiskey from start to finish.

THE RETURN OF THE IRISH SINGLE MALT IS UNDERWAY

7 YEAR OLD SINGLE MALT 46% ABV

THE NOSE. Rich and sweet, a premium single malt Irish whiskey with a touch of cinnamon and more than a hint of citrus fruits - orange zest, lemon infused with vanilla ice cream. A touch of fresh floral notes like meadow flowers.

THE TASTE. A silky velvety smooth palate with the returning orange zest tones to the fore, with rich crème brûlée and dark chocolate notes and just enough cinnamon and white pepper spice to keep it interesting, followed by the beautiful robust malt and oak influenced flavours, almost butterscotch, which mix wonderfully as the warmth expands through.

THE FINISH is luxurious and lingering, the spicy, sweet notes elegantly marry on the finish and stay an eternity. Everything you'd expect from the perfect sipping whiskey.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

13 YEAR OLD SINGLE MALT

46% ABV

THE NOSE. Deep butterscotch, honeycomb and rich lemon meringue balanced with citrus fruits and just a hint of a clove spice.

THE TASTE. Jumps to the front with an intense vanilla fudge luxurious sweetness and almost rock candy mixed with touches of fruit - lemon citrus, peach and dried apricot. This is followed by deep spices; red peppercorn and light cloves. A truly velvety mouth feel that just hovers on the palate.

THE FINISH. The spice is left lingering with underlayers of robust malt characteristics and deep oak notes. And again vanilla fudge reoccurs with a finish that lasts an eternity.

THE ORIGIN OF THE SPECIES, THE ORIGINAL WATER OF LIFE

GOLD MEDAL WINNERS in the IRISH WHISKEY AWARDS 2014
(PREMIUM & MOUNTAIN STRENGTH)

THE NOSE

Slight in nature and might fool you. If you didn't know better you might sense a faint Riesling fragrance, no less. Oak, berried fruit, gooseberries and blackcurrants are in there. Our Mountain Strength holds true with that extra headiness of the high alcohol. Where as a slight zest of orange and blueberry sweetness comes through in the Sherry Cask Finish.

THE TASTE

Creamy and mellow in the mouth and hangs on the tongue with a trace of lychees. There are hints of black, cracked pepper, especially so in the Mountain Strength. Some dried fruits show up in all three poitíns, with dried apricots featuring in the Sherry Cask Finish. Touches of vanilla and toasty oak throughout also. A very full flavoured poitín that goes down nicely.

THE FINISH

A good length of finish, it's lingering and warming and sweet, if slightly salty. Wait for a comforting, spicy tail, even spicier in the Mountain Strength, along with dried fruit and berry notes throughout the range, but even more so with the Sherry Cask Finish that also holds more vanilla from the extra time with the oak.

WILD, SEASONAL, BOTANICAL GINS

94/100 POINTS - HIGHEST RANKED IRISH & INTERNATIONAL GIN

Tomas Clancy, Sunday Business Post, June 2015

This is a gin unlike any other. Each season we go out into the wilds of Wicklow and forage. We pick what grows and distill with it the very next day. While the spring gin is a fresh mix of young green shoots, wild botanical leaves and flowers, the summer gin tastes like a meadow in bloom, with amazing floral flavours and light early fruits. Autumn is packed with wild fruits and berries, it's the bounty of the surrounding mountains bottled. Winter can be a tough one to get out. Some years we can't even make a batch, it completely depends on what kind of winter we get! With each taste, these gins transport you to a place and time in our home - the Wicklow Mountains.
